Dear Prithvi Parthasarathy,

Thank you so much for supporting Tree House Books and our Books in Every Home campaign with your donation of 194 books on November 10, 2020 as part of the Storyjourney.org and Read2DreamFoundation. Without you, we truly could not fulfill our goal of creating and sustaining a community of readers, writers, and thinkers. The books that you have so generously donated will find their way into the homes of families and children, changing lives through reading and mitigating the Philadelphia literacy crisis.

It is our hope that you continue to walk with us to promote lifelong readership and access to high-quality books for every child. We have many ways you can continue to stay involved with Tree House Books: volunteer in our library, become a literacy coach, serve on a committee, or become a donor at <http://www.treehousebooks.org/donate>! To figure out your next steps, contact emma@treehousebooks.org.

Thanks again Prithvi, we hope to see you soon!

Best,

Emma Goldstein
